

ODEI November Collective Learning Series

Whose Neighborhood is it Anyway?

Hybrid Engage Session:

11/29/22
2 pm
Holloway Hall

EVENT DESCRIPTION:

Half of Americans report that the availability of affordable housing in their local community is a major problem, but displacement of locals persists, especially in college towns. Please Join the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion for November's Collective Learning Series on Affordable Housing to examine the issues nationally, regionally, and locally. Follow along with our materials and join us for our hybrid engage session on November 29th at 2pm!
